

FAITH PATH RECIPE CARD

Creating Impression Points

BEST USE

As a guide to use as a dessert date with your younger child(ren) in which you will select ways to share faith discussions together

NUTRITIONAL VALUE

Helps you launch frequent faith discussions (Deuteronomy 6:6-9)

PREPARATION

- Invite each child out for a special parent/child dessert date. You might want to send them a nice invitation in the mail just for fun!
- Bring this recipe card with you to guide a discussion in which your child will select the times and questions he or she wants to try as you launch parent/child faith discussions.

SERVE IT UP

MEALTIME: Capture moments while eating together.

- What to Do: After giving thanks for your meal, have each family member share your "High/Low" - the high point and low point of their day.
- What to Discuss: What Bible story did you learn at church this past weekend? Name a favorite Bible character and tell their story. IF God wrote a letter directly to you this week, what topic would He address and what would He say?

BED TIME: Give each other a brief blessing at bed time.

- What to Do: While tucking in for bed, parent or child says "What do I love?" The other person must then guess what the person is thinking in one of the following categories: A fun moment they shared that day, something nice about the other person, or something they appreciate that person did today.
- What to Discuss: Before falling asleep, ask and answer: How did we experience God's goodness today? Did we need to ask God's forgiveness today? What do we want to give thanks for before falling asleep?

DRIVE TIME: Explore God's creativity while in the car.

- What to Do: Each time you plan to take a short drive, play a game of "I Spy" together—naming several things God created (a flower, a cloud, a blue bird, a cow, etc.) that you must spot before arriving to your destination.
- What to Discuss: On a longer drive discuss the following: We know that God knows our future. What do you hope He sees in your future? What do you think God wants you to do this week in order to prepare for such an exciting future? How will you use that future experience as a way of worshipping God with your life?
